

Moot—Jan. 11, 2009

Attendance: 19

WWM report:

We have the site from 8 am to 6 pm.

Volunteers needed for set up/tear down to assist Scarlet Keep

Royal liaison: Isadora, Scarlet Keep will also have someone

Pilgrims' badges for sale near troll, $2, to help pay for the passport program

Post-Revel: Lincoln Women's Club, 14th and K, 7 pm until 2:00 am; Owain will be on site; Clean-up Sunday morning 9 am to 11 am.

Scarlet Keep: Allie from Scarlet Keep came and reported that they had volunteers for set up and tear down and would provide cloth to cover armor as needed. She had been contacted by 35 people for crash space—we were able to find space for them with the people attending moot.

Officers' Reports:

A & S: finish bookbinding Jan 21; Feb. 4, pennants for the Jubilee; Feb. 18, harp demo

Archery: meeting again now after holiday break

Chatelaine: no report

Chronicler: no report

Herald: no report

Marshalate: no report

Demo Coordinator: Feb. 21—Cub Scout demo at St Andrews Church, 1045 Lancaster Lane, 6:30 pm

Thurs, Feb. 19—Outdoor Cooking demo for women's church group; Briganza will handle this

Treasurer: $6233.60

Guilds/Interest Groups

Dance: not meeting

Fiber: meeting Jan. 15th at Sashatec's

Music: meeting Jan. 29th at Volkmar's;

Will be focusing on instrumental music

Scribes: meeting Jan. 23rd and 30th at Carlos'

Baronage:

Cattle Raids is August 22nd—bids are due March 11; Natalya will contact Molly and reserve the camp for the weekend.

The Calling of the Herd (Herdmaster) will be the weekend of either April 18-19 or 25-26—bids are due Feb. 25.

Calendar:

January

17—WWM – BE THERE!

February

7—Clothier's Seminar

9-16—Estrella War

19—demo about outdoor cooking

21—Cub Scout demo

21—Bobbin' and Weavin'—fiber event, not an official kingdom event, but Gyda plans to attend
28—Jubilee; Calontir's 25th Birthday party—we have been asked if we want to run the inn; most people attending did not wish to do so.

Twelfth Night report:

Congratulations to 12th Night A & S winners:

Seraphina (Saxon clothing) and Dwolm (mead)!

Queen's Prize report:

Mag Mor had 10 of the 80 entries; of the 8 children's entries, 3 were ours (Libby was the youngest person to enter). Many braved the weather to enter and to judge.

Seraphina was one of three honored by the queen and also received a Leather Mallet.