

Moot—March 25, 2009

Attendance: 17

Officers' Reports:

A & S: April 1st —archery equipment with Robert; preliminary quarterly report has been sent out—please contact Gerald with corrections/additions

Archery: continues on Wed.; Mistress Jane was made a Boga Fyrd at Gulf Wars

Chatelaine: no report

Chronicler: Runestaff deadline Mar. 31; Aibhilin will work with whoever is selected as new chronicler

Demo Coordinator: 2 demos in the past month-- Cub Scout demo at Hill School and recruitment demo at Mullen

James Arthur Vineyard demo is coming up—HalfTroll has been in contact with merchants and will invite James Ballard to a moot in April. Planned activities include: royalty of some sort (to be appointed), archery, fighting demo, music, scrolls/calligraphy, Mag Mor Mummings. We need an ACTIVITIES COORDINATOR!

Volunteers?

We will need help at archery, A & S tent, set-up/tear-down, etc.

Herald: no report

Marshalate: Mar. 31st will be the last indoor practice—outdoor practices begin on April 7th at Woods Park. Weather rule will be the same as last year—if it is actively raining at 6:00 pm, practice will be cancelled without any calls being made.

Treasurer: $5653 balance; Gyda is checking storage places; Letters of intent for the position of Exchequer will be accepted until May 13th, to take over for Etienne when she steps down in September

Guilds/Interest Groups

Fiber: meets April 16

Music: April 2, music will be at Scarlet Keep; April 16 at Volmar and Isadora's

Scribes: next meeting unknown; lots of scrolls upcoming for Calling of the Herd

Baronage:

Mullen demo on Saturday—we had a lot of fun in Mullen. Our contact there did a good job of publicity, but there were conflicts, so attendance was poor. We will send a special invitation to Cattle Raids.

HE Catherine will be able to come to moot more often – hooray!

Calling of the Herd will be April 26 at Antelope Park, in the enclosed shelter, from 1 pm to 6 pm.

Other Business:

Baronial Gathering--

Natalya suggested that we make the second moot of each month into an officers' meeting with a social hour for the populace. The library will allow snack food and we could get together and enjoy some time with our friends. Generally we don't need a full moot twice a month unless there is an upcoming event. The feedback for this idea was generally positive, as long as moots could be called as needed. No official action has been taken as yet.

The fifth Wed. in April is open and we can try a social hour then. Bring snacks, visit, hang out, have fun.

Lanterns for the Baronial pavillion—

Ozy got a good deal on 24 lanterns for the baronial pavilion—24 lanterns for $30. These lanterns have a nice antique finish. He offered to make boxes at cost to hold the lanterns. The populace decided to go ahead with this purchase.

Zino asked for people who could teach at Scarlet Keep. Contact him for more information.
