Greetings Mag Mor,

Callaghan and I want to say, thank you, to everyone that was able to come out to the August Revel, which was held on the 5th at James Arthur Vineyards. It was warm, lots of fun, fabulous food and some of the best company anyone could ask for.

Thanks for making it a great day! Also, Maximillian took a photo of the populace. Considering the number of individuals, thanks Max, it looks great!

Cattle Raids is fast approaching, and should be a grand event. The theme is the "Best of the Past." So, come out to the Isaak Walton League, August 24-26, and enjoy the "Best" of Mag Mor.

We have some up coming local events that need the thinking caps of the populace:

Crown Tourney (March 22, 2008) - bids due October

Baronial A&S - usually held in October

Yule Court - usually held in December

If any of these events strike your fancy and you might be interested in autocrating, please start thinking about a bid, activities, and location. You can talk with Sabi or the Baronage about these events...we can help brainstorm to come up with some ideas if you need some assistance.

It is with heavy hearts of the stepping down of TRM Lorell and Cadfael, September 8-9, they have lead the Kingdom well. Thou we are privileged to have the upcoming Heirs to the thrones in our Barony. This is going to be a sight to see, so make sure you mark your calendars to attend this grand endeavor.
