Sashatec and Catherine, Baron and Baroness of Mag Mor send warm greetings to the populace of Mag Mor:

After a very busy winter, we greet the approach of spring with high anticipation and resolve. We have survived the multitude of winter events, the many and varied activities that we individually have been responsible kingdomwide and have emerged stronger and better prepared for an even busier situation.

We need to concentrate on two major areas. The James Arthur event and our Gladiator party at Lilies. These need to be organized now and get past the planning stage into the doing stage. We, along with HL Natalya will be appointing chair people to head these up and begin assembling their crews. Please do not hesitate to volunteer in any way you might find agreeable. We encourage you to stretch yourselves and try something you are just a little unsure about. We are very good in our barony of assumptions that our mainstay people will “get it done.” This time, let’s try something new.

We will shortly be crowning a new set of royals. They have indicated that they too would like to involve people other than the ones they have used before in their retinue and support organization. Please, if you are so inclined, contact their chamberlains and offer your assistance. It will be greatly appreciated and will show our Mag Mor spirit.

We greet this new season with high hopes and hope that you too will continue to have fun.

In service to Crown and Barony,
Catherine and Sashatec

Unto the populace of Mag Mor come greetngs from your seneschal, Natalya.

We had a great time at the Jubilee. The Trivia Quest was a lot of fun for those we could coerce into giving it a try. Her Excellency Isabeau won, despite telling us she didn't have time to do it. Mistress Conna was given a court barony and Onora O'Toole was called to the order at morning court and made a pelican at evening court. We didn't get enough sleep and Three Rivers is a long ways away, but we spent time with friends and remembered all the good times that we've had in Calontir during the last 25 years.

The Jubilee Pilgrimage is winding down, so be sure to have me verify your passports by April 15th to be eligible for the prizes. Winners will be announced at Lilies.

We are going to Mullen, NE to help the new contact group there. The date is March 14th. If you can help, shoot me an email or tell me at moot and I will help you set up a ride.

Letters of intent are due for the positions of chatelaine and chronicler. For chatelaine, you must also send a letter to the kingdom chatelaine. We want to fill these positions as soon as possible.

I would like to get more people to moot. Any suggestions? I try to keep the meetings moving so there is time to socialize, but there is business that must be conducted. And we need volunteers from a wider circle than those that currently come to moot. For example, unless someone steps up to run the Calling of the Herd (come on, fighters!) there may be no fighting champion this year.

I sign this missive while scratching my head, trying to find an idea that will bring people to moot.

Yours in Service,

Natalya

Good greetings upon the populace of Mag Mor, the coolest and most knowledgeable barony in the Known World.

This missive ends my tenure as the chronicler of Mag Mor. I would like to thank you for all for your ideas, suggestions and most of all items for this publication. I have enjoyed the past two and half years and appreciated the opportunity to serve our Barony and our Kingdom. Please give my successor all of the patience you gave to me. If you have anything you would like to submit, please continue to use chronicler@magmor.net, as this address will remain the same.

Yours in Service to Kingdom and Barony,

*Aibhiltn Inghean Chutnn
Chronicler, Mag Mor*

For those of you who did not see the final list of trivia questions for the 25th Jubilee, here are the first half of questions. The answers and the second half will appear next month. Thanks to all of you who participated in creating the questions.
